If you are performing a SOLO in Saturday's competition, Staff Audition Judges will watch your solo performance and it will serve as your solo for Staff Auditions. You do not have to follow the guidelines above for "What to Wear", nor must you adhere to the time limit. We will tell you where and when to report for your interview when you check in at the Staff Audition Table.

If you are NOT performing a SOLO on Saturday, we will give you a time and location to report for your Staff Audition solo performance, and a separate time and location for your interview. If you are not performing a solo, but are performing a duet or ensemble, you must still do an audition solo.

This will be the only location for 2012 Staff Auditions**

You do not have to be participating in the Louisiana State Competition to audition for staff*

Do not forget to let Ashley know if you plan to audition so the proper arrangements can be made with respect to timing and performance order*
